PRECIOUS METAL PURCHASE AND STORAGE AGREEMENT

Please print - Page 3 of 3

The Buyer hereby appoints Atlantic Canada Metals Inc. (ACM) to:

Organize and execute the storage of the above mentioned physical precious metals on behalf of the Buyer. The precious metals are stored in the name of ACM, acting as an agent for the Buyer who is the owner of the acquired precious metals.

Pay all fees on behalf of the Buyer.

Deal with all administrative matters in connection with the storage of precious metals.

Provide the Buyer with online statements of the Buyer's precious metals being held at the storage facility.

Fees:

The Buyer agrees to pay ACM a quarterly storage, insurance and management fee as specified in our Terms and Conditions of Sale and Storage. The buyer will receive an invoice by email quarterly.

ACM reserves the right to hold back a selling order from the Buyer until any outstanding fees or unpaid invoices are paid in full.

If the Buyer sells a part or all of his precious metals in storage or moves a part or all of his precious metals out of storage the Buyer agrees to pay an exit fee as specified in our Terms and Conditions of Sale and Storage.

The Buyer shall be responsible for any and all third party fees for transporting the precious metals, for customs clearance, handling, moving and so on, if any. These fees are subject to change without notice.

Access:

The Buyer may send an authorized representative who is authorized by ACM to inspect the precious metals at the expense of the Buyer.

The Buyer agrees explicitly that he has read and examined the Terms and Conditions of Sale and Storage. The Buyer fully understands these Terms and Conditions of Sale and Storage and accepts them as a basis of this transaction.

The Buyer acknowledges and understands that he did not receive a consultation and that neither the ACM nor any agents of ACM or other parties associated with the transaction completed herein are advisors. The service of ACM or any of its agents or other parties associated with this transaction is limited to the mediation of a trade.

The Buyer confirms that he is trading for his own account.

Cancellation policy:

NO CANCELLATION RIGHT!

Because precious metals are subject to price fluctuations to which ACM has no bearing on, the buyer has no right to cancel this agreement.
